Gov't bares car insurance plan

President and Mrs. Richard Nixon greet Prime Minister Trudeau at the White House Monday night for state dinner.

Trudeau invites Nixon to pay visit to Canada

WASHINGTON - Prime Minister Trudeau Monday night invited President Richa d Nixon to visit Canada at lis earliest convenience. Trudeau added during an exclange of toasts at a White Hou e dinner, which ended the first day of the prime minister's two-day visit here: "I can't guarantee there be no trouble. I can't guar intee it for myself." The reference related to a Nixon comment about his earlier days when he visited many countries which had become trouble spots around Trudeau told the white tie and tails crowd in the state dining room that he believes the counter-missile system kind of friends who do tell the threat to Canada by the possi durin; the high-level talks be- tory.

Canadian Press

external affairs and defence committee was reported Monday to have adopted a recommendation that Canada maintain it membership in the North / Ilantic Treaty Organi-

A con mittee source said the vote was in favor of maintaining the status quo," apparenly meining that Canada's

NEW YORK - Astronomers

at the M-Donald Observatory in Texas said Monday they have obtained the first "absolutely corclusive proof" that water exists in the atmos-

Although the water content appears to be very low, the observations seem to dispose of the argument that the air of Mary is so dry that life

The astronomers said the observations are consistent with the long-argued theory of migration of water vapor from the Martian pole emerging from winter to the pole about to enter winter. This movement was thought to account for the "wave of darkening" that some have taken

The darkening of the Martian landscape begins in as evidence of vegetation.

could not exist there.

OTTAWA - The Commons

tween him, Nixon and U.S. officials earlier in the day and that is the way it will be in the future. "We know we will always have the helping hand from the U.S., he said.

In his talks with Nixon Trudeau explored the "rationale" behind the proposed American counter-missile system called Safeguard. That subject, along with a number of other matters, was discussed in a 90-minute private session and later in a larger group the two leaders joined for another 45 minutes. The group included External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp and U.S. State Secretary William Rogers.

discussions were general on rather than dealing with any bility of hydrogen warhead; truth was told exploding over Canadian terri

MP committee recommends present contribution to the 15-member alliance should re-

Exact wording of the recommendation on NATO was not

The committee, which returned Saturday from a two-week European tour, met in closed session Monday to hammer out its report to Parliament, scheduled for tabling the polar cap that is melting.

The darkening moves toward the Martian equator at about spring began in the Arctic

It has been argued that melting of polar frost adds enough water vapor to the air to enable plants to flourish, although non-living processes could also account for this

The observations were described Monday in telephone interviews with Dr. Harlan

Smith, head of the McDonald Observatory, operated by the University of Texas, and by Dr. Ronald Schorn of the Jet

Propulsion Laboratory, operated by the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. Another member of the observing team was Dr. Stephen Little of the University and moved south.

color change.

miles a day, as though nation retain NATO links main unchanged.

Wednesday.

It was a busy day in a rainy Washington for the

He attended a state department lunch tendered by Rogers with a broad mix of political, diplomatic, government, newspaper and other representatives. There, in a light-hearted reference, he pointed up one of his concerns western Canada crude oil exports in the future.

prime minister.

Nixon's views on NATO and his recent European tour, the Arab-Israeli situation, student unrest, east-west relations, international wheat price problems all figured in the discussions.

But most interest centred on the modified counter-mi sle system announced by Nixon on March 14 as a sucsor to the one called Senti-

> Continued on next page See TRUDEAU

ported to have been almost manimous in the 30-member

In addition to the NATO clause the committee's report is expected to contain recommendations endorsing

Canadian participation in peacekeeping operations and disarmament initiatives and calling for greater civil de-tury a number of scientists have suspected that the white polar caps of Mars were covered with dry ice (frozen carbon dioxide) rather than frozen water. Smith believes the new observations show that "at the least an appreciable amount" of water ice must be present in the caps.

In the Texas observations the observatory's 82-inch reflecting telescope channeled light from Mars into a large spectrograph which revealed the relative intensities of the light's constituent wavelengths. At several hundred points in the infra-red portion of the spectrum there was absorption at wavelengths characteristic of water vapor.

This indicated that the light had passed through water fence efforts.

Makes life possible

Scope spots water on Mars committee with only two or three members opposed.

Best behavior PM keeps

By GEORGE BRIMMELL Province News Services

cool

WASHINGTON - How's the PM doing in the big time. Relax . . . He's doing just Prime Minister Trudeau was holding his own in very fast company Monday.

He was on his best behavior, putting forward a very decorous front and creating a favorable impression on every hand. If anything, his reputation as a swinging playboy, or as a mildly eccentric and exciting character, has suffered on his trip to Washington as President Nixon's first head-of-

Still, the urge to slide down a bannister, or cut up in me fashion may become government guest.

Who can tell? But on the first day's performance, Canada's dashing leader, much the object of respectful admiration, was the very picture of a proper minister. In his public appearances, at the White House and the state department, he'd get straight A's for deportment.

He was confident and cool, and reserved - but friendly and at ease, and apparently enjoying himself immensely

He seemed to be impressed by the honors being accorded . but not too im-

He exuded a quiet confidence and conveyed the impression he knew exactly what he was about on this mission: that he was going into his talks with the presi-

> Continued on next page See PM COOL vapor in the atmosphere of Although the observatory is 6,800 feet above sea level in desert country, and although the observing was done on two unusually dry nights this month and last, there was still 20 times more water vapor in the earth's atmosphere overhead than in the Martian atmosphere under obser-

It was found that air in the southern skies of Mars con-fained, on the average, enough water to cover the surface to a depth of two thousandths of an inch. Air over the northern hemisphere

The total humidity of the Martian atmosphere is now estimated, from the Texas observations, to be sufficient to produce one cubic mile of was half as moist.

Secret talks in

New York Times United Press International

Mideast

WASHINGTON-King Hussein of Jordan and Foreign Minister Abba Eban of Israel have held at least two secret meetings in recent months to try to arrange elements of a Middle East settlement, according to reliable sources, but their efforts were unsuccessful.

These neutral sources disclosed that King Hussein was dissatisfied with the terms that Israel had offered and had broken off the meetings sisted from the outset that any tentative understandings would have to be made known through Dr. Gunnar Jarring. of Sweden, the United Nations representative for the Middle East to ensure that other Arab governments would be properly informed. But this never became necessary.

VERY RISKY

Direct contacts with Israeli officials are a matter of extreme sensitivity for Arab leaders, and are considered especially risky for Hussein. His grandfather, King Abdullah, was assassinated on July 1951, after similar contacts with Israeli leaders, including a meeting with the present premier, Mrs. Golda

Meanwhile Egypt and Israel fought with tank guns and heavy artillery along a 72-mile front of the Sucz Canal Monday for nearly six hours. Al Fatah guerrilla spokesmen said the Israelis were rushing tens of thousands of troops into the area for a "major attack."

HEAVY DAMAGES

On the opposite Middle East ceasefire front, Jordanian spokesmen in Amman reported a 70-minute machinegun duel with Israeli forces near the Sea of Galilee.

Both Egyptian and Israeli military spokesmen claimed heavy damages were inflicted on the other side in the crosscanal battle that raged from Qantara in the North to Suez City in the South. United Nations observers arranged a ceasefire after one unsuccessful attempt.

in Cairo, Al Fatah Arab spokesmen said massive Israeli armored and infantry units have been sighted moving into the Sinai Peninsula East of Suez. They said it was more than just another exercise and a major (Israeli) attack against the canal is

NEW GOV'T

In Amman King Hussein accepted the resignation of Premier Bahjat Talhouni and named Abdel Moneim Rifai to Rifai, regarded as more of a moderate on the Middle East crisis than his predecessor.

In operation by summer?

By ALEX YOUNG Province Victoria Bureau

VICTORIA-B.C. is to get a new and compulsory auto insurance scheme providing basic compensation for all deaths and personal injuries caused in road accidents, regardless of who is to blame.

In addition, the plan will require all drivers to be covby minimum public liability insurance of $50,000, which will permit suits for re-covery of death and injury damages above and beyond the basic no-fault benefits.

After introducing legislation Monday proving for the new s c h e m e. Attorney-General Peterson said the government hopes to put the plan into effect this summer.

Peterson said he expects the plan will cut premiums, possibly as much as 25 per

The plan places more emphasis than existing car insurance on compensation for human injury and less on benefits for repair of vehicles. In an apparent effort to promote safer driving, the legislation also proposes to increase the minimum age for a driver's licence from 16 to 18 unless the licence applicant is a certified graduate from an authorized driver training school.

However, Peterson said, the increased age section of the legislation will not be brought into effect until there are enough authorized training courses available - and he would not predict when this

Other highlights of the new insurance legislation: • The government is empowered to enter the auto providing coverage at proper insurance business if it feels the insurance industry is not is virtually eliminated collision damage to a vehicle, with the owner being unable to recover any more than $250 through small debts court action from the person responsible.

· Collision insurance is still permitted but, because no recovery of damages above $250 will be allowed, it will be costly—if in fact, insurance companies offer it.

· Because the overall public liability insurance will be compulsory, companies selling it will not be able to cancel policies.

· High-risk drivers will pay higher rates, as at present, but all rates for all categories of drivers will be "flat rated" that is, a driver in one area of B.C. will pay the same rate as a driver in his same category who lives in another

• Rates will be subject to control by a government board, with power to act against discriminatory rates. on complaint by individuals who aliege they are being discriminated against.

• The compulsion in the scheme will be enforced under a provision in the legislation stating that anyone convicted of not having insurance is liable to a fine of not less than $250 or a jail sentence

Continued on next page

Pays cash benefits for death, disability

Province Victoria Bureau

VICTORIA-Death benefits death of a head of household spelled out under the B.C. government's proposed compulsory auto insurance plan provide a maximum immedi eash payment of $5,000 the survivors of the head of household.

If a person is not killed but disabled, then compensation is paid to a maxi-

More legislature Pages 2, 11, 33

mum of $50 a week to the head of household. The compensation rates under the legislation are those paid without proof of fault. If negligence is later proved in a court action, then great-

The schedule of death benefits provides $500 for a child of up to four years; a payment of $1,000 for a child of five to nine years; $1,500 for a dependant from 10 to 17 years of age; $1,000 for a dependant between 18 and 69 years; and $500 for a dependant 70 and over.

er damages may be recov-

The compensation for the to 64 years of age is $5,000 from age 65 to 69, $3,000; and 70 years and over, $2,000.

For the death of a spouse in impensation for the decea ed to 64 is $2,500; 65 to 69. $1,500; and 70 years and over, $1,000.

The head of a household is defined as the person with the greater income in the year preceding the date of death, regardless of sex.

Where there are two or more survivors to the head of household, whether they be spouse or dependants, the principle sum payable immediately is increased by $1,000 for each survivor other than the first. For example, if a traffic victim leaves a wife and son, the cash payment would be at the maximum rate $5,000, plus $1,000.

In addition, if there are one or more survivors, there will be a payment of $50 per week per dependant other than the first, for a period of 104 weeks. If a person is not killed but

Continued on next page See $5,000

Satellite program laid out in bill Quarry beats Mathis in heavyweight bout . . . Page 13 Gage to be next president of UBC? . . . Page 23 Freeway decision sought by May 15 . . . Page 34 Warehouse fire lasts through day . . . Page 34 Bridge Business Classified Comics Crossword Entertainm Garden Racing . Shipping Sport

Man-made web,

Page 23

. . . Page 3

Mass arrests

in Pakistan

Port Moody

Theatres

Flames destroy school

Port Moody Secondary School burned to the ground early today despite efforts of three fire departments.

Firemen from Port Moody, Coquitlam and New Westminster fought the blaze for four hours but couldn't control the fire and the building collapsed in flames.

Police tried to keep back crowds as loud explosions from laboratory oxygen bottles ripped huge chunks out

Cause of the fire - which apparently started in paper towels in a basement storage area of the two-storey school -was not known.

Students playing basketball in the gymnasium of the 634student school on Port Moody's main street escaped only minutes before flames reached that part of the building early in the fire.

The school was built in 1951.

Ike weaker. losing ground

WASHINGTON (AP) - Former president Dwight Eisenhower grew weaker Monday and lost ground in his struggle for life.

The five-star general was conscious but "requiring continuous oxygen and other supportive measures." bulletins issued by Walter Reed Army

Premier bows to opposition; drops mental health change

Province Victoria Bureau

VICTORIA - Premier Bennett withdrew a section of a proposed government amendment to the Mental Health Act when it came under heavy fire Monday from both sides of the legislature.

The section, described by the Opposition as a step taking mental health legislation back to the dark ages, would have given the health minister or anyone designated by him power to detain indefinitely a patient in a psychia-Socred backbencher Ernie LeCours (Richmond) startled the legislature when he said there is already insufficient protection for mental patients in B.C. and then launched a sharp attack on Riverview Provincial Mental Hospital.

ERNIE LeCOURS . . . attacks Riverview

He said he knows personally of two cases in recent years of patients being detained "to vegetate" in Riverview-one. a woman, for 41 months, and another for a year. "I sincerely feel there is not enough protection against such things now," LeCours . it is a deplorable The patient who was detained in Riverview for 41 months, he said, received no proper treatment or medication and came out of the institotion sicker than she went in. "She might have stayed there forever if I hadn't interceded," he arided, "yet there was no reason for her

Continued on next page SEE PREMIER

Reproduced with permission of copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.